

JRD 2013

The Second AVSE Annual Doctoral Workshop
OCTOBER 30-31, 2013 AT THE PARIS DAUPHINE UNIVERSITY

FIRST CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

AIM

The Association of Vietnamese Scientists and Experts (AVSE) and the Paris Dauphine University - Ph.D. and Ph.D. candidate association (ADD) join forces to organize the Second AVSE Annual Doctoral Workshop (JRD 2013). This workshop will be organized on Wednesday and Thursday the 30th-31st of October 2013. Open to all Ph.D. students (Vietnamese in particular) from all disciplines, who currently pursue a doctoral program in Europe (France, Italy, Belgium, Spain, Switzerland, Germany, UK...), the JRD 2013 aims to give the participants the opportunity to: (i) meet each other; (ii) exchange research ideas and experiences; (iii) present their ongoing research projects and/or research papers; (iv) get comments from senior researchers and fellow students.

TOPICS

Doctoral students working on all areas of science are welcome and cordially invited to submit an abstract on their Ph.D. research for presentations (oral or/and poster) at the workshop. Examples of several areas include:

- Applied sciences: civil engineering, information and communication technologies, biology, electrical engineering, nuclear energy,...
- Natural sciences: mathematics, physics, chemistry,...
- Social and human sciences: economics, management (business, finance, accounting), letters, civilizations, history, medicine, psychology,...
